

E.K. TV is a private television network.

This new TV media proposes, via exclusive streaming on the internet, a panel of VOD (video on demand) and live programmes: sports (live games, highlights, magazine and "inside" reports), music (concerts, highlights and interviews), cinema, exhibitions and more ...

Thanks to being internet-based, and through its different programmes, it reaches a multi-regional, national and international audience.

The audience rates for 2012-2013 are: almost 1 million visits with an average viewing time of five minutes, in 128 countries.

The production tools are of the "Broadcast" type.

E.K. TV has its own advertising agency. The administrative offices and the production offices are located in Mons.

E.K. TV-emotion has no borders.
